The student understands that during this process, the college or the state in which they reside may alter its requirements, and that CPNEW has no control over such changes and will not be held accountable. The student further understands that their enrollment in the CPNE review requires that they adhere to the policies and procedures of the company and that they are bound to the agreement with the company for the duration of any agreement they execute. The student is applying for enrollment in the CPNE review to utilize the CPNEW lab and tutoring to pass the CPNE required by the degree granting institution to meet their ASN curriculum requirements.

CPNEW is acting as a tutoring service to help students pass the CPNE and does not offer any credit or certification for taking the CPNE review. CPNEW is not the degree granting institution and is in no way affiliated with them or endorsed by them. CPNEW will provide academic support when needed. CPNEW reserves the right to change course content, materials. No additional charges are made to currently enrolled students for these types of changes.

The workshop is held at Kaylim Career Institute's facilities but is a product of CPNEW. Neither Kaylim Career Institute or CPNEW will be held responsible for accidents caused by negligence when attending the CPNE workshop.

I certify that I am one of the following: LPN, Paramedic or Respiratory Therapist, Military Corpsman, Physicians Assistant. CPNEW does not check professional licenses or verify with the degree granting institution of the students eligibility to take the CPNE. It is the students responsibility to be aware of their eligibility to take the CPNE through the degree granting institute. No refunds will be given because a student is not eligible to take the CPNE through the degree granting institution.

All students must come to the workshop having read the Excelsior guide on the CPNE. All students MUST wear scrubs. (No specific color is required.)

(It is ok if a student leaves early on the third day during the hands-on practice.)

Payment of fees: Personal check, money order, cashier's check, cash or credit card will be accepted for payment of the workshop fees. Insufficient funds checks will result in the student not being allowed to attend review sessions until the fees are paid with money order, cashier's check or cash. Checks should be made out to E-Stone Global, LLC.
